The ball is in the Judiciary Committee's court on this. I told the Committee counsel (Harkins) that we thought the Director's letter was ~~a~~ responsive ~~response~~ and we would be willing to make Houston's classified memorandum available to the subcommittee members if we could be assured that its security classification would be respected.

The subcommittee was scheduled to meet this afternoon. Dick Poff was very helpful on this. We should have him out for a drink and lunch some day. [REDACTED] is up to date on the case.
